To: Members of the Umpqua Valley Quilters Guild

The Umpqua Valley Quilters' Guild publishes a monthly newsletter that is distributed to members in PDF format via email and printed copies. This newsletter is also posted on our website at www.uvquilters.com. We like to include newsy articles and photographs of our members in the newsletter. The publication of the names of members may make our names searchable online.

In the interest of respecting the privacy of our membership, we ask that you read the information below and make your selection regarding permission us to publish your name and photograph.

When attending guild events where our Photographer/Historian or anyone acting on his/her behalf is taking pictures YOU will need to let him/her know that you DO NOT want your picture taken.

I have read and understand the above information

I agree to grant permission to the UVQG to publish my name and photograph in their newsletter and social mediums.

I do not grant permission to the UVQG to publish my name and photograph in their newsletter and social mediums.
